WHERAS, BCHA was founded as and continues to be a grassroots volunteer organization which collects dues intended to pay for operating expenses, and

WHERAS, such dues were never intended to be paid out to numerous members of the national board of directors and officers for such things as travel expenses and consultation, and

WHEREAS, the only way for an organization to remain solvent is to spend less than it takes in, and now therefore be it

WHEREAS, that BCHA shall obligate the Board of Directors, and or the Executive Director to raise all necessary funds by other fundraising means for adequate funding of the BCHA.

RESOLVED WHEREAS, BCHA will not raise dues of its members, nor solicit additional funds of its members for the purpose of balancing the budget; now therefore be it further,

RESOLVED, that BCHA will operate with a balanced budget every year and not drain money from the reserve funds to fund the general budget; and BCHA returns to a volunteer-based organization; and now be it further,

RESOLVED, that BCHA shall obligate the Executive Committee, and or the Executive Director to raise all necessary funds for adequate funding of the BCHA budget here after.